- Your Captains will eat and share all meals onboard with you.
- When dining out, your captain and crew will assume their own meal onboard. If you would like them to join you for a meal out, you are expected to pay for their food.

- Monohull Charters: diesel fuel and up to 5 gallons of gasoline is included in monohull charters.
- Catamaran Charters: gasoline is included. Bella Cruising Experience will bill guests for diesel fuel at the end of the charter.

All Inclusive vs. Standard Crew Experience

Our typical Captain and Crew “workday” is from 9am-5pm, during this time we are involved in all activities onboard and ready for adventures!

- I understand that with the Standard Crew Experience, all guest crew is expected to:
  - Share cleaning responsibilities
  - Share galley duties
  - Participate in safe operation of the vessel
  - Maintain a tidy cabin
  - Be involved in all things while onboard
  - Maintain personal independence
    - Example: When on anchor, feel free to take the dinghy to the beach and explore, not all crew will always want/need to join.
- I understand that with the All Inclusive package, my captain and mate’s duties include:
  - Cooking meals and cleaning up around the galley
  - All operation of the vessel
  - Driving the dinghy
  - Guiding island and water excursions
- I understand that with the All Inclusive package, Captain and mate’s duties DO NOT include:
  - Maintaining guest area cleanliness
  - Professional wait staff (we do not serve drinks and mix cocktails)
  - Participating in all excursions. We will facilitate excursions and outings, but on occasions will need to be on the boat preparing meals or maintaining systems.

Termination Of Charter

Bella Cruising Experience holds the right to terminate a charter without any refund if guests are unlawful by standards of the US Federal Government that govern the maritime industry.
